

June 2, 1944

Mr. Abe Gottlieb,
1537 Chestnut Street,
Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania.

Dear Gottlieb:

In reference to our conversation last night asking me about releasing June 24th, for the Gray's.

In going over the schedule I see we have nothing for that following week after the 30th with the Yankees in Newark. Do you think you could work out anything so that we could have the 29th in Philadelphia? I was also wondering what the possibilities are for having Kansas City here during that week. Do you think the Yankees would be interested in getting another team and going to Virginia for that week? If so we could play Kansas City here on the 30th, if not we could try them earlier in the week maybe the 28th.

Please let me know about this right away as I must order the placards.

Very Truly Yours
